As usual, the grocer, the butcher, the candlestick maker jump in the plant business for a few weeks. By quoting ridiculous low prices, attracts a number of orders which quickly swamp their limited shipping facilities and cause long delays and disappointment to the buyer. Finally, in desperation and confusion, the orders are packed in haphazard fashion by careless hands and usually reach destination a package of sickly slips. We mention these facts for the benefit of the inexperienced.

I sold all I grew last season and am offering them to the planters again this season cheaper than the middle man can sell them. Thanking you planters for your past orders and hoping you will send me your order again. I will try to please you.
